

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BHI Senior Living Named Top 20 Organization in 2025 LeadingAge Ziegler 200 Report

BHI Senior Living is proud to announce it has been ranked among the Top 20 not-for-profit senior living organizations in the nation in the 2025 LeadingAge Ziegler 200 Report. The annual report recognizes the 200 largest not-for-profit senior living organizations across the United States based on size, scope, and impact.

Earning a place in the Top 20 marks a significant milestone for BHI Senior Living and reflects the organization's sustained growth, operational strength, and unwavering commitment to excellence. This recognition underscores BHI's mission-driven approach and its continued investment in quality, innovation, and community-centered care.

"This recognition is a testament to the dedication and collaboration of our teams across all BHI communities," said John Dattilo, President and CEO of BHI Senior Living. "It affirms our long-term vision and our commitment to serving older adults with integrity, compassion, and excellence—now and into the future."

BHI Senior Living serves older adults across Indiana, Ohio, and Michigan through a network of Life Plan Communities, assisted living, memory support, and health care services. As a not-for-profit organization, BHI reinvests in its people, programs, and campuses to ensure long-term sustainability and meaningful impact.

The LeadingAge Ziegler 200 Report is widely regarded as one of the most respected benchmarks in the senior living industry, highlighting organizations that demonstrate scale, stability, and leadership in the not-for-profit sector.
